Escape to the heart of "cowboy country" with a true Canadian ranch adventure. The Montana Hill Guest Ranch is a working cattle ranch nestled on over 500 acres of gentle hills and pine trees in beautiful British Columbia. This package offers you a chance to step away from the everyday and experience the rugged beauty and warm hospitality of ranch life.

Enjoy a 3-night stay in a cozy, 1-bedroom rustic log cabin that can accommodate up to 4 people, making it a perfect family getaway. After a day of exploring, imagine coming "home" to a private hot tub, grilling your dinner on your own barbecue, and watching a star-filled sky from your deck. Each cabin comes with a gas fireplace and a kitchenette, giving you the perfect blend of rustic charm and modern comfort.

What's a ranch without horses? You won't have that problem here. This package includes a 2-hour horseback riding experience for up to four people. Whether you are a new or experienced rider, there will be a well-trained ranch horse that fits your level of experience. The owner, Al, will make sure new riders are shown the basics, ensuring a pleasant and safe ride.

Beyond the trails, experience true ranch life with activities like cow milking, cheese making, and group bonfires. Or, choose your own adventure with axe throwing, archery, hiking, and mountain biking. In the winter, you can even enjoy snowshoeing and cross-country skiing. Each morning, you'll be treated to a full gourmet breakfast, setting you up for a day of adventure.
