Experience the quintessential charm of the American Northeast with a 3-night retreat for 2 at your choice of curated inns and resorts across New England. This flexible getaway allows you to anchor your stay in one of six iconic states, from the rugged "Maine Lighthouse Trail" to the cobblestone heritage of historic Massachusetts.

New England is a region defined by its atmosphere. You might choose to wake up in a seaside village where the morning air carries the scent of salt and the local fleet is bringing in the day's catch. Further inland, the landscape shifts to the emerald peaks of Vermont and New Hampshire, where historic inns sit nestled among covered bridges and world-famous autumn gold. Each location offers a distinct version of American romance, whether it is a sunset walk along the tranquil tidal flats of Cape Cod Bay or an afternoon exploring the Gilded Age mansions of Newport.

The region's identity is tied to its local flavors, from the "Farm-to-Table" movement in the Berkshire hills—the summer home of the Boston Symphony Orchestra—to the legendary seafood shacks of the Atlantic shore. Wander through villages that pre-date the American Revolution, browse fine art in small-town galleries, or simply enjoy the quiet luxury of a traditional inn fireplace. This experience is a timeless invitation to American romance.
