This pet-friendly residence features four and a half bathrooms and is located steps away from the town centers of Rosemary Beach and Seacrest. Your stay combines the relaxation of a private coastal home with access to exclusive community pools and a full-service bonfire celebration on the sand.

The house is designed for groups, featuring three bedrooms with king-sized beds and a fourth bedroom with queen-sized bunk beds. Each of the four bedrooms includes its own en suite bathroom. Four bicycles are provided for exploring the local area, including the nearby Timpoochee hike and bike trail. To make your beach days effortless, a complimentary tram service is available to take you to the private Seacrest Beach, located just a 10-minute walk from the front door.

Your stay includes an evening beach bonfire party for up to 10 people. Everything is arranged for you, from the necessary permits to the setup and breakdown of the site. Beach chairs are provided, along with all the ingredients for s'mores. A dedicated attendant will remain on-site throughout the event to manage the fire, allowing you to relax with family and friends by the water.
